

Freska

A close-up photograph of a variety of appetizers. In the foreground, there are several golden-brown empanadas. Behind them are sliders on buns, some with meat and cheese, and others with a dark sauce. There are also breaded, square-shaped bites, possibly fried cheese or chicken, each topped with a slice of red pepper and a wooden skewer. The food is arranged on white, scalloped-edged paper doilies. In the background, more appetizers are visible, some with small white labels that have the word 'Freska' on them.
